Multi-Dimensional Theory

God exists

all ways
exist in God's mind

"1/2" have Jesus
"1/2" do not

the various possibilities

Jesus is imaginary story
in the half he did not exist

~~Jesus's~~ Jesus's atonement (death) was enough
to compensate all sin
even if he only did it
in one of the infinite infinities

cheat to believing in
Jesus

this universe
exists

that it ever began implies that it it were to ever end, then the chances of it starting up again ~~after~~ eternal eternities sometime

~~is~~ is absolute
as time becomes irrelevant & the "accident" would happen again

happens eternally until all possible variations of possibly have an opportunity to occur - sometimes duplicates eventually always

some fluk
this dude named Jesus died for our sins out of delusion, & turned out it worked
(for "GOD" know why)
even though it was a lie

then everyone can return to ~~Jesus~~ Heaven if they -

A hand-drawn illustration of a lighthouse on a hill. The lighthouse is a dark, vertical structure with a small circular light at the top, situated on a brown, textured hill. Behind the lighthouse is a large, bright white circle with a yellow outline, representing the sun or moon. The background is a light blue sky with horizontal wavy lines. A yellow speech bubble-like shape contains the text 'Silhouettes of GOD' in black, handwritten-style capital letters.
